

YOUTH INSTRUCTIONAL GOLF LEAGUES

The Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department 2008 Youth Instructional Golf Leagues are open to both residents, and non-residents. Students entering grades 6 thru 9 as of August 2008 are eligible to participate. The leagues, using the fun-filled scramble format for play, (9 holes weekly) welcomes golfers of all skill levels. New teams are created on a weekly basis.

Previous league participants may register for either program A or B. First time league participants, are required to register in program B.

Program A: $80 covers league and green fees

Program B: $155 covers league, lesson, and green fees

Program B participants receive four, one-hour, group lessons. Instruction covers swing fundamentals, drills to develop a repetitive swing, chipping, putting, rules & golf etiquette.
